Cross-Examination: Science and Techniques

THIRD EDITION

Larry Pozner, Roger J. Dodd

Working from the three principal rules of cross, Pozner and Dodd explain the difference between constructive and destructive cross, identify effective impeachment techniques and show how to make your crosses advance your theory of the case.

Master the skills of constructive cross-examination using:

- The Chapter Method
- The only three rules of cross-examination
- Page preparation
- Constructive vs. destructive cross-examination
- Preparation of witness charts
- Preparation of topic charts

Learn how to control opposing witnesses including:

- Controlling the evasive witness
- Impeachment by inconsistent statement
- Impeachment by omission
- Using witness anxiety to compel honest answers
- Alternative sequences of chapters

Trial techniques are not merely discussed in the abstract, but instead are illustrated with questions from counsel and witness testimony, giving you the theory and practice to guide you to successful outcomes.

Hundreds of examples, including trial testimony excerpts and sample leading questions, help to illustrate the authors' signature techniques and methodologies.

Pozner & Dodd, The Masters of Cross-Examination

Undermining the opponent's case and discrediting the opponent's witnesses have historically been viewed as primary goals of cross-examination. However, counsel can also use cross-examination constructively to control the opponent's witnesses so that the witnesses will advance the attorney's own theory of the case. This use of cross-examination can be devastatingly effective, yet many attorneys fail to deploy it.

The DVDs provide detailed guidance on the authors' signature "Chapter Method" of preparing for cross-examination, as well as proven techniques for controlling witnesses. Topics include:

- Creating and controlling anxiety in the courtroom
- Importance of word selection
- Three commandments of cross-examination
- Improving control of hostile witnesses
- Looping techniques

Client Deposition Preparation Series

Proper preparation of your client for the stressful experience of deposition can make all the difference—and prevent mistakes that could cost you the trial or hurt your settlement. This DVD series provides consistent witness preparation by assisting attorneys in the preparation of clients for deposition with illustrative deposition scenes. Each DVD includes:

Pointers on avoiding the most common witness mistakes

- Saying too much
- Guessing
- Assuming

Guidance on correct behavior

- Listening carefully to the question
- Pausing briefly to allow time for your attorney to react
- Always being honest
- Asking questions when you are unsure

Conference room scenes that demonstrate the potential impact of mistakes made during deposition and the positive effect at trial for a well-prepared and presented deposition are included in each DVD.

Thorough, professional, billable preparation for your witnesses!

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

LARRY POZNER proudly traces his roots to the Colorado Public Defender system. His career has included a broad range of criminal cases, a strange mix of commercial matters, and several years representing the Denver Broncos Football franchise.

Mr. Pozner is a past president of the National Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers. He is listed in the Best Lawyers in America in Bet-the-Company Litigation and in Criminal Defense, both street crimes and white collar. He teaches cross-examination and trial tactics throughout America and Canada.

ROGER J. DODD tries and consults on cases of all types: personal injury, commercial, civil and criminal throughout the United States and beyond. He has active offices in Park City, Utah, Oklahoma, Georgia and Florida.

With fewer and fewer trial lawyers with experience, he is called on continuously because of his more than 42 years of experience.

Mr. Dodd has been board certified by the National Board of Trial Advocacy in civil trial practice for more than 21 years and was certified in criminal trial practice for more than 20 years. One of his most recent consultations involved a case in London, England.
